

March 26, 1940.

Commander J. Mercer Burrell,
Emmitt Guyton Post #152,
American Legion
23 Howard St.,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I know you will not be surprised to receive this letter, as it is drawing around time for our Baseball opening date, May 5th, 1940, the place at Ruppert Stadium, Newark, N. J. The Eagles will be playing The New York Black Yankees.

I am writing to ask your very colorful Group, Emmitt Guyton Post #152 American Legion to attend, as you have in past years, you render a great deal of color to the occasion and we are very happy to have you with us. Kindly let us know whether you will be able to accept.

Very truly yours,
